

Respect for the environment has always been an integral element of the design and construction of every project developed by Maple Hurst Builders. Green building and sustainable construction are not merely marketing terms. Resource and energy conservation, judicious use of materials and permanence of the structure are paramount. Maple Hurst Builders strive to deliver properties of unsurpassed value and enduring beauty.

Over 90% of waste generated during construction of Bartlett Sq has been recycled*

| | |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------|
| 44 tons/48 tons | General Construction Debris |
| 11 tons | Gypsum Wallboard |
| 4.5 tons | Cardboard |
| 6,300 gallons | Bottles, cans & miscellaneous metal |

*As of 1/31/2012